The Day on the Local Exchange.

While the volume of business was not especially large, there were more not especially large, there were more transactions recorded on the sales sheet on today's session of the logal exchange than for weeks past.

In the bond section Potomac Electric is first mortgage bonds sold at 101, and after the sale the price was again bid without inducing more offerings. These bonds have always been favorites in Washington, the issue being relatively small compared with the security and the interest earned several times over. In times of peace and plenty they were quoted around 108 and 110 and a retirement clause at 110 probably prevented them selling above that figure. That they are above par places them in a class by themselves in these bargain days.

in a class by themselves in these bargain days.

Mergenthaler Linotype found a level at which the stock sold to the extent of thirty shares in five-share lots, with more offered at 140 at the close. The sales indicate a 3-point loss.

Continental Trust shares firm at 120.

Find Bomb in Jury Room.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., November 9 .- A special from Waverly, Tenn., says that official announcement was made there yesterday by the sheriff of finding two sticks of dynamite, crudely fashioned into bombs, in the grand jury room of the courthouse. What was the motive of those placing the bombs is a mystery.

Myron T. Herrick, grandson of former Ambassador Myron T. Herrick, was run down by a motor delivery truck and al-most instantly killed in Cleveland Wed-

CHICAGO, November 5.-Lard was added to the food administrator's fairprice list for Chicago today. It appears from the official announcement that "a from the official announcement that "a three-pound tin" weighs precisely two pounds five ounces. The consumer should pay according to the new list from 58 cents to $1.07 for this pail containing standard pure lard.

Other sizes are priced proportionately. The wider range was quoted to allow the cheaper grocers and the fancy ones room to adjust themselves. Potatoes went up 1 cent a peck, being quoted at 39 to 44 cents.

GRAIN AND PROVISIONS.

NEW YORK, November 9.—With the immediate opening the market presented a stronger front too the bears who had not covered all of their short sales of Thursday, while many buying commissions were entered for the account of traders who dared, despite the appearance of things in northern and southeastern Europe.

The Russian news was bad enough, but the fact that a separate peace is not desired by the party in power and the declaration of certain leaders to that effect made it look at least a little less blue in hue.

GRAIN AND PROVISIONS.

CHICAGO, November 9.—Strength developed in corn prices today, owing to the fact that the government crop report indicated a smaller yield than the trade had expected. It took but little buying to bring about a rather sharp advance. Offerings were comparatively scarce. Initial quotations, which ranged from unchanged figures to 1½ higher, with December 1.17% and May 1.12% to 1.13%, were followed by a material upturn all around.
Oats sympathized with the corn bulge. Rural offerings were light.
Huge shipments of lard and meats made the provision market ascend. Higher prices on hogs counted also as an element of strength.

little less blue in hue.

But the street apparently counted considerably on a favorable development following the conference between the President and prominent New York bankers who have been called in to discuss conditions, that may be effective in modifying future legislation and perhaps cause a change, temporarily, in war financing.

The opening was strong, higher prices prevailing before the end of the hour, then reactions set in, which caused a loss of a large part of the gains and in the case of General Motors a loss of 3½ points net, while American Telephone and Telegraph was decidedly soft.

than the first, for the losses, with two exceptions named, were very generally recovered and the highest prices prevailed at the close of the noon hour, with the market at that time near the top.

The rally, too was splendidly reflected in the rails, the point where strength was needed, and seemed to respect the feeling that has become almost assurance that the present hearing is practically certain to result favorably to the roads.

The recovery carried Steel common to 92½, nearly 2 points advance; Eethlehem B to 73, a 2½ gain; Marine preferred gained 2 points; and other stocks better than 1 to 1½ on the average.

In the rails, the leaders were Reading and Union Pacific, shares that are practically certain to pace any advance in the group, the former gaining 2½ to 65¼ and the latter 2½ to 112.

St. Paul was up 2¾, New York Central 2 points and other rails 1 to 2 points.

Trading languished in the afternoon hours with the advances more or generally pared down, Steel common coming back to 96½.

FOOD PLEDGE CAMPAIGN LIMITED SUGAR SUPPLY MANY OFFER TO AID IN

More Than 2,000 Woman Volunteers Needed to Make Card Canvass as Brief as Possible.

Many offers of volunteer aid for the food pledge card campaign, which begins November 20, already have been received by Clarence R. Wilson, food administrator for the District of Columbia, and enough to make certain that every home in Washington will be canvassed are expected to gather at the Central High School next Tuesday evening, where Mr. Wilson will meet them.

meet them.

More than 2,000 women will be needed to make the campaign as brief as possible. Man volunteers from the citizens' associations will hold their first meeting with Mr. Wilson at his office, 1435 K street northwest, at 4:30 o'clock this afternoon. All men who can give part of their time to this work are invited whether directly allied with an association or not.

In company with food administrators from the southern states Mr. Wilson attended a meeting at the United States food administration today. The principal topic discussed was the best way to make permanent the organization which was built up to carry on the pledge card campaign in all parts of the United States, except the District of Columbia, last week.

Clarence R. Wilson, food administrator for the District of Columbia, has called at the United States food administration office, but was told there that the sugar shortage was general east of Colorado and that no more could be done than was now being done. Only two refineries are now operating in New York and one in Philadelphia, and a part of their output is coming to Washington, but more than half the local grocers are now out of sugar, while others have only lump sugar or brown sugar.

LAREDO, Tex., November 9.—Mistaking United States Custom Inspector Rumsey for a cowboy caused the arrest yesterday of Lieut, Hans Berg and Lieut, Alfred Loeschner, who, on October 23, escaped with eight other Germans from the internment camp at Fort McPherson, Ga. Both men are under military guard at Fort McIntosh, Laredo. After eluding officers of several states in their 1,200-mile Journey, Berg and Loeschner had been in Laredo three days without exciting suspicion until yesterday, when Inspector Rumsey discovered them below Laredo on the Rio Grande. The Germans, mistaking Rumsey for a cowboy, replying to a question as to what they wanted, said:

"We are German prisoners who escaped from Fort McPherson. We are trying to get across into Mexico and from there will return to Germany."

Rumsey was joined by Customs Inspector Chamberlain and the officers immediately placed Berg and Loeschner under a rrest.

Decreased Consumption Only Way to Meet Situation, Says Food Administration.

Only limited supplies of sugar will reach Washington during the next six weeks, it was said at the United States food administration office today, and the only way to meet the situation is by a decreased consumption.

Some Relief Is Expected.

Some relief is expected when the food administration succeeds in having France and certain neutral countries release large consignments of sugar they are holding in this country for export. France several weeks ago made an appeal to this country for 160,000 tons of sugar to relieve the shortage over there, where the allowance is but one ounce per day per person. A large part of this amount is now en route to France, but through the international commission the French government was persuaded to return to the American market part of the sugar it was holding for export.

November 16.

Announcement that "newlyweds" who brought a marriage license issued this year would be admitted free caused a record attendance at the show last night. For the benefit of the brides Mrs. Bertha Wilcox gave a demonstration in cooking bread and cakes. Mrs. Wilcox will give demonstrations this afternoon of the approved methods of preparing fish.

Soldiers, sailors and marines in uniform will be admitted to the show free of charge tomorrow night. The free list tonight will be extended to all bald-headed men, the doorkeeper to be the judge of the requisite amount of baldness to be shown in lieu of a ticket.

were defined today at the tood adminis-tration. All sugar exported has been bought from the refiners or wholesalers in the regular way and cannot be ex-ported except under licenses issued by the government.
